

Constantyn Chalitsios '11 serves as Senior Vice President Operations at Tenrivers, a provider of digital technologies transforming the oil and gas industry towards an energy industry that is economically sound and ecologically minded. Constantyn's expertise includes operations, technology, and global supply chain. Prior to joining Tenrivers, he spent 23 years with Schlumberger, Baker Hughes, and Weatherford, most recently as Vice President Operations, and 4 years outside oil and gas with Canon and Philips.